The National Quality Control Congress, the 4th elder National Quality event worldwide, is the forum in which national quality professionals get together and exchange experiences to foster the development of Quality Science. The National Conventions of Quality Circles began in 1982 in order to have a forum in the country in which the Quality Circles presented their outstanding improvement projects winners in their companies to managers and quality professionals, as a stimulus for their collaboration in the continuous improvement in their company and for the dissemination of the participative work model. As of 2012 it was added: "and Improvement Groups" in order to accommodate the presentations of the other participative work models such as effective working groups, project groups, Six Sigma and others.

The Mexico Asia Pacific Seminar on Total Quality which takes place since 1991, in 2002 became the forum in America where the winners and distinguished organizations of the International Asia Pacific Quality Award – now Global Performance Excellence Award - present their Quality Model and exchange experiences, contributing to promote the state of the art of quality science.

IMECCA'S International Forums. This year there are scheduled the seven following IMECCA'S INTERNATIONAL FORUMS: 30th on ISO 9001, 23rd on Environment Mgt & Tech ISO 14001, 15th on OHSAS/ISO 45001, 11th on Food Safety and Defense, ISO22000 & similars 9th on Quality In Health Services and 5th on Quality in Construction Industry which have been organized since 1992, 1999, 2007, 2011, 2013, 2017 respectively and the 2nd Aviation, Space, and Defense AS9100 Quality Mgt System which is organized for the second time.

They have become prestigious not only in the region but also worldwide since for more than forty years they have counted with the participation of delegates from North, Central and South America, some European countries, Asia, Middle East, countries in the Pacific rim, including Australia and New Zealand, all united as colleagues willing to exchange experiences and foster the development of quality science.

These events are opened to professionals from all over the world, so the gathering will have an international scope with the participation from the 5 continents plus the digital continent.

The International and National Conferences organized by IMECCA are excellent opportunities to exchange experiences and to promote new achievements in this field. However, to make this communication efficient it is necessary that all speakers and delegates are willing to have an active participation.

The persons interested in being speakers should consider that their participation will not be limited only to the presentation of their paper and to answer the questions they are asked but they ought attend with the video on, at least to 80% of the other presentations of the stream so that they can discuss concepts and enrich the subject area. It is particularly important that the speakers be present in the discussion panel belonging to their subject stream. Speakers should do a rehearsal of their presentation as soon as they can but not later than Oct 5 and record it and send to the Congress secretariat the link to play de presentation in case of any disturbance in the zoom transmission.
